Liability waiver for MOGAST Bike ride

In exchange for participating in the non-competitive bike ride MOGAST – Three Passes, One-Day Ride: Mortirolo, Gavia, Stelvio, scheduled for June 22, 2024, and being fully aware of the legal consequences of false declarations as well as the criminal penalties provided under Articles 46 and 76 of Presidential Decree 445/2000, I hereby, under my own responsibility:

DECLARATION

- I am aware that this is a non-competitive event without rankings.
- I certify that I am physically fit to participate and have not been advised otherwise by a qualified medical professional. I confirm that no health-related issues or concerns prevent me from taking part in this bike ride.
- I acknowledge the route, its elevation profile, and the possibility of encountering challenging weather conditions (e.g., sun, wind, rain, hail, thunderstorms, cold, darkness, fog, snow, ice) or other hazards such as wild or unattended animals.
- I am fully aware of the traffic regulations and commit to adhering to them throughout the event.
- I fully accept the event rules without reservation.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND ACCEPTANCE

- The route is identified through GPX tracks provided on www.mogast.com. These tracks are solely for routing purposes, and participants are responsible for independently navigating the route.
- This is not a competitive ride but a free cycling tour without rankings or time limits.
- Each participant rides at their own risk and responsibility. Participants must consider themselves private individuals riding freely and hold no special rights over other road users.
- Each cyclist is solely responsible for their actions, particularly any violations of traffic regulations.
- The organizers do not provide medical, food, or mechanical assistance. There is no rescue service, and the organizers are under no obligation to search for participants along the route.
- The organizers are not required to supervise the route during the event.
- This is not an event organized by professional entities. It is conducted solely for recreational purposes and without profit, as defined under Article 1174 of the Italian Civil Code. Participation in MOGAST is entirely voluntary and recreational, and the organizers are exempt from any liability related to the event.
- No other entity bears responsibility for incidents that may occur during the event, including accidents, getting lost, health issues, injuries, theft, etc. MOGAST is to be regarded as a private and spontaneous gathering of amateur cyclists.
- By participating, I waive any right to pursue legal action against the organizers, acknowledging that they are non-professionals acting purely for recreational purposes.

CONDITIONS OF PARTICIPATION

Registration and participation in MOGAST are strictly subject to full acceptance of the above terms and adherence to the following conditions:

- 1.Full compliance with traffic regulations.
- 2.Respect for the environment, including a commitment to keeping roads, forests, and lawns clean.
- 3.Strictly avoiding littering along the route and using designated garbage bins.
- 4.Wearing an approved cycling helmet at all times.
- 5.Avoiding large groups on the road that may obstruct normal traffic and, where possible, riding in a single file.
- 6.Using traffic-approved artificial lighting when natural light is insufficient.
- 7.Behaving respectfully towards other participants and individuals encountered along the route.

Your data will be used by the organizers exclusively to share information about future initiatives related to the MOGAST ride. If you do not wish to receive future communications regarding MOGAST, please send an email to info@mogast.com.
